

Eating under the starlit sky is a way of life on safari; family-friendly suites make kids feel right at home.

the stars that make all the difference. For families with younger children, the Luxury Bush Home (The Royal Suite) is the ultimate retreat and includes both a double en-suite and a twin en-suite room, as well as a private dining room, library, lounge, TV room and a hot tub on the private game deck.

One of the most important elements of the Royal Madikwe experience is the wine and dining. The safari residence takes a laid-back approach to catering for guests, and menus are flexible and tailor-made according to preferences. Gourmet travellers will appreciate the attention paid to producing delicious, wholesome food that uses as many local ingredients and seasonal produce as possible. High tea is a much anticipated afternoon affair; once the sun sets, guests are treated to gourmet food and wine experiences in the elegant candlelit dining room or outside for a starlit alfresco African feast.

With a maximum of 10 guests at any time, Royal Madikwe can tailor guests' experiences to suit their interests - from star-gazing safaris to African dancing lessons and outdoor massage treatments - ensuring that they get the most out of their stay at this luxury bush escape. And for younger guests, activities like African arts and crafts, treasure hunts, bush-baking sessions and story telling in the kiddies' lounge keeps eager minds occupied. And although Royal Madikwe has its own nannies, accommodation is available should families prefer to bring along their own childcare staff.

Royal Madikwe is intensely involved with the surrounding community and 20% of all profits generated by the lodge is reinvested into local community projects. Passionate about maintaining responsible tourism practices, Royal Madikwe is the first establishment in the North West Province to carry the esteemed Fair Trade in Tourism South Africa (FITSA) trademark, which embodies its devotion to combining tourism, environmental management and local economic development. This luxury lodge - which is available on a sole and exclusive basis only - offers an out-of-this-world safari experience with an undeniable feel-good stamp.
