

Green getaway in the orchards of Ceres

The latest addition to Fair Trade in Tourism South Africa (FTTSA – www.fairtrade.org.za) accredited holiday getaways include the beautiful Fairfield Mountain Cottages in the Western Cape. Situated on a working fruit farm in the Ceres Valley just 90 minutes out of Cape Town, this is a place where guests can reconnect with the natural world while uplifting the local community and protecting the environment. Whether your preference is for a lazy afternoon walk among the orchards, or full blown hike into Ceres mountains, this is the perfect place to unwind after a busy week. Visit: www.fairfieldcottages.co.za