Mercure Hotel Suites is located in the heart of Bedfordview, Johannesburg adjacent to Eastgate shopping centre. The hotel has 120 air-conditioned, self-catering, 1 or 2-bedroomed spacious suites and studios.

Mercure Bedfordview is an ideal conference venue and is only a few minutes away from the Oliver R Tambo International Airport. Being located close to the heart of Johannesburg makes it possible for guests to access national heritage sites, cultural attractions and sports venues and other facilities in the business capital of South Africa.

Mercure Hotel Suites Bedfordview has a number of programmes in place to improve its performance across the triple bottom line of sustainable development. Policies and practices are in place to minimize impacts in relation to waste, water and energy. In the social context, the hotel as part of the Accor group is active in the fight against child sex tourism, through staff training and raising customer awareness on how to recognise and combat this problem.

Staff exchanges within the Mercure group encourage job mobility and enable staff to acquire and develop skills. Staff also participate actively in social investment activities including a project to Accor en Action Employees' share offering.
